

Architecture of Fleet Street

North Side - from Ludgate Circus to Bolt Court

No. 149

THE HERITAGE of FLEET STREET

April 2026

No. 152-153

Simple plastered façade, probably concealing post-Great Fire buildings.

Bouverie House (No. 154-160)

Stripped Classical with Art Moderne windows. Built in 1924 with 1960s attic.

No. 165

21st-century replacement for Hulton House. Plain design with the original clock.

No. 167-169

1961 office block with unusual windows.

No. 170-171

Renaissance-style façades incorporated into a 1980s redevelopment.

No. 171

Built in 1881.

No. 173-176

1986 Postmodern brick and terracotta building. Large but well balanced.

No. 180

1984 red brick building with blank gables. An unremarkable design.

No. 184

1892 red brick with stone dressings, oriel windows and a shaped gable.

DC Thomson (No. 185) & No. 186

No. 185 (1913) has oriel windows and a richly detailed façade. No. 186 (1893) retains historic signage.

St Dunstan in the West

Neo-Gothic church with a tall steeple, clock and statue of Elizabeth I. Octagonal interior. Built in 1830. Grade I listed.

Law Life Assurance (No. 187)

1834 building of London stock brick with stone dressings, rounded oriels and a balustrade. Grade II listed.

Coutts & Co. (No. 188-190)

1967 Modernist building with large roundels at the entrance.

No. 191-192

1986 Postmodern recladding of an earlier 20th-century building.

Attenborough & Son (No. 193)

1883 red sandstone former jeweller with a rounded corner and rich decoration. Grade II listed.

Law Courts Branch of Bank of England (No. 194)

1888 Renaissance Revival palazzo with loggia and turrets, now a pub. Grade II listed.

Royal Courts of Justice (1868-1882)

George Edmund Street's Gothic Revival masterpiece, decorated with steeples, arches and well-preserved interiors. Grade I listed.