

Shoe Street

No. 171

THE HERITAGE of FLEET STREET

April 2026

This list comes from the 1847 Post Office London Directory, the first in a series published every year. It shows the wide range of people, jobs and businesses in the area at the time.

- 1 – John Cleave, publisher & bookseller
- 2 – T Mothersole, oil & Italian warehouse
- 2 – James Lake, engraver and printer
- 2 – John Mason, butcher
- 2 – Edward Goodwin, bookseller
- 3 – William Hardin, Ben Johnson
- 3 – Charles Collis, hairdresser
- 3 – Mrs. Frances Small, fruiterer
- 4 – Henry Pameller, undertaker
- 5 – Chapman and Elcote, printers
- 5 – Francis Witty, newsvendor
- 10 – George Walter, Blue Post
- 11 – Henry Knight, bookbinders tool cutter
- 12 – Henry Ingle, locksmith, bellhanger
- 13 – J Fellowes, tobacconist and bookseller

HERE HARP ALLEY INTERSECTS

- 14 – W Pegg, stationer and rag merchant
- 15 – John Randall, French polisher
- 16 & 82 – John Huxham, dairyman
- 17 – James Proviss, Noah's Ark
- 18 – Mrs Sophie Lee, fruiterer
- 19 – Martin Tuckwell, grocer
- 20 – Thomas Ashwell, Red Hart

HERE STONECUTTER STREET INTERSECTS

- 46 – Samuel Green, brace and belt maker
- 47 – S Lescube, glass & china warehouse
- 49 – Mrs Sarah Martino, grocer
- 51 – Richard Dawson, Red Lion
- 54 – Pontifex, coppersmiths & millwrights
- 59 – Mrs. Elizabeth Proctor, Plumber
- 59 – Charles Canti, glass blower
- 60 – Joseph Barrett, metal warehouse
- 61 – Harton & Watts, wholesale pewterers
- 62 & 63 – John Payne, brass foundry
- 63 – Robert Wathey, metal warehouse
- 64 & 65 – Bentley, Wilson & Fley, printers
- 66 – Mark Rawlinson, van proprietor

HERE ROBIN HOOD COURT INTERSECTS

- 68 – John Waterdale, van proprietor
- 69 – Thomas Weston, bricklayer
- 70 – Stephen Millen, chemist
- 71 – Henry Walden, basketmaker & turner
- 72 – G Acton & sons, emery, putty, etc.
- 73 – J Stanton, telescope maker
- 74 – Thomas Hayward, Two Brewers
- 75 – Richard Hooke, Baker
- 76 – Mrs Elizabeth Casbard, butcher
- 77 – J Beckwith, Clarendon coffee rooms
- 78 – Joseph Striblehill, coppersmith
- 80 – W. Richardson, coal and coke merchant
- 80 – W Richardson, toy manufacturer
- 81 – Philip Pike, Baker
- 83 – Thomas Ashwell, Back Dog

HERE LITTLE NEW STREET INTERSECTS

- 89 – George Green, cheesemonger
- 90 – John Chuck, cabinetmaker
- 91 – Peter Macdonald, oil and colourman

HERE GUNPOWDER ALLEY INTERSECTS

- 93 – Thomas Cotterell, pawnbroker
- 100 – Peter Jackson, furniture broker
- 101 – J Shelley leather dyer and seller
- 102 – John Wood, currier and leather cutter
- 103 – Morning Herald newspaper
- 103 & 104 – English Chronicle and Whitehall Evening News
- 105 – Mrs M Summers, gold and silver beater
- 106 – Adolphus Warren, solicitor
- 106 – George Woolf, accountant
- 107 – R Hughes, copper & brass manufacturer
- 108 – George Conquest, seal engraver
- 108 – John Watts, cooper
- 109 – Joseph Clark, tailor
- 110 – William Darling, pork butcher
- 111 – John Mason, dining rooms
- 112 – George Brett, baker
- 113 – George Botterill, coffee rooms