

The Fleet Street Heritage Sundial

No. 108

THE HERITAGE of FLEET STREET

April 2026

The Fleet Street Heritage Sundial stands on the corner of Fleet Street and Bouverie Street. At 10 metres square, it is believed to be the largest vertical sundial in the UK, and possibly Europe.

Opened in 2021, it celebrates Fleet Street's 300-year history as the home of British newspapers. The sundial includes the names of five historic newspapers that are no longer published.

The photographs show: (1) the completed sundial; (2) the Royal coat of arms being painted; (3) the opening ceremony with Hilary Russell and the designer, Piers Nicholson; and (4) the plaque at the base of the sundial.

The sundial showing 10 am (sun time) on 21st October 2021. The gnomon which casts the shadow is at the top left hand corner of the sundial; the shadow moves slowly across and down the sundial during the morning

Painting the sundial in October 2021

The Lady Mayoress of London, Hilary Russell, cutting the tape to open the sundial

One of the three plaques at eye level