

The Fleet Street Heritage Walk

No. 130

THE HERITAGE of FLEET STREET

April 2026

The walk begins at the Dragon statue on Fleet Street, which marks the City of London boundary.

You walk along Fleet Street, passing historic buildings such as the Old Bank of England pub and Prince Henry's Room, one of the few pre-Great Fire of 1666 survivors.

The route goes through Chancery Lane and quiet courtyards like Clifford's Inn, then past St Dunstan-in-the-West church with its famous clock figures and statues. You continue by Hoare's Bank, one of the oldest family-owned banks in Britain, and explore narrow lanes that survived the Great Fire.

The walk passes sites linked to science, literature, and journalism, including the former home of the Royal Society, statues of John Wilkes, Dr Johnson's cat Hodge, and historic newspaper buildings.

Highlights include the Fleet Street Heritage Sundial and Magpie Alley, celebrating the printing industry.

The walk ends at Ludgate Circus above the buried River Fleet, near a plaque to writer and journalist Edgar Wallace.
