

Architecture of Fleet Street

North Side - from Ludgate Circus to Bolt Court

No. 148

THE HERITAGE of FLEET STREET

April 2026

Thomas Cook (No. 107-111)

Built 1872, extended 1906. Classic-style building with travel-themed sculptures on the doors.

Daily Express Building (No. 120-129)

1930 Art Deco corner building with black glass panels and a fancy entrance hall. Grade II* listed.

No. 130

A mix of Northern Renaissance and Neo-Gothic styles with modern upper windows. Built in 1907.

No. 131

Postmodern entrance linking No. 130 and Mersey House in 1988.

Mersey House (No. 132-134)

1904 Arts & Crafts style with granite arch, bow front, and big columns. Grade II listed.

Daily Telegraph (No. 135-141)

1928 Art Deco with classical and Egyptian details, balcony, and fluted columns. Grade II listed.

The Kings & Keys (No. 142)

Former pub with Neo-Jacobean narrow facade and carved windows. Built in 1884.

Queen of Scots House (No. 143-144)

1905 Gothic Revival with twin gables and a Mary Queen of Scots statue. Grade II listed.

Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese (No. 145)

C17 building with later additions. 1991 Neo-Georgian shopfront. Grade II listed.

No. 146

Mostly a 17th-century brick building over Wine Office Court. Grade II listed.

No. 147

20th-century rebuild. Simple design with band windows.

No. 148

Victorian white stucco with carved window details.

No. 149

Late 19th-century Jacobean style with striped arch and carved frieze.

No. 150-151

Connected buildings with brick bands and cornices. Small decorative columns and dormers above.